

Dr. Tiffany McCormack
McCormack Plastic Surgery
Reno, Nevada

ASK DR. McCORMACK

WHAT ABOUT YOUR CREDENTIALS HELPS MAKE YOU IN-TUNE WITH PATIENTS' BEAUTY GOALS?

As a Stanford-trained, board-certified cosmetic surgeon and a former Miss USA contestant, I combine my paramount training and keen eye for beauty to not only work on my patients, but with them—tailoring each procedure into a one-of-a-kind, individualized experience.

HOW DO YOU ENSURE PATIENT SATISFACTION?

We follow through from the beginning to ensure you are happy with the end result. And with a strong focus on educating the patient on options available, my goal is to inform patients to achieve a result that fits.

IN WHAT WAYS IS YOUR APPROACH EXPANSIVE?

My office is all-inclusive, complete with a medi-spa, synergistic product lines and a highly attentive and caring staff. My comprehensive approach doesn't just cover surgery. It begins the minute a new patient walks through the door.

Beauty by design

As a full-service office, McCormack Plastic Surgery goes above and beyond to make sure full comprehensive treatment is available to each and every patient. With a focus on skin care and UV protection, Dr. McCormack offers the crème de la crème of personally tested skin-care products to keep patients glowing and healthy long after their procedures. As a state-of-the-art facility, McCormack Plastic Surgery offers the Portrait 3D™ surgical simulation system, which allows Dr. McCormack to showcase the likely outcome of a breast augmentation surgery, giving patients a visual image of what they can expect to look like after the procedure takes place. The simulated results can be viewed from all angles, and specific sizes of breast implants can be input into the computer so the patient can see results in a number of different scenarios.

AESTHETIC ABDOMENS

To correct this 32-year-old's protruding abdomen, which diet and exercise alone wouldn't fix after pregnancy, Dr. McCormack performed a tummy tuck as part of a mommy makeover. "Sometimes surgery is the best way to address symptoms that don't respond to other measures within a patient's control," says Dr. McCormack. "As shown here, a tummy tuck can offer major improvement, helping patients reach their aesthetic goals."

BREAST ENHANCEMENT

"When I perform breast augmentation, beautifully balanced, not just bigger breasts, are my goal," says Dr. McCormack, who enhanced the size of this patient's breasts to complete her mommy makeover experience. "I want my patients to look proportionate and rejuvenated, not just enhanced." To achieve such natural-looking results, Dr. McCormack engages in lengthy preoperative consultations.

"mommy makeover can be your answer post-pregnancy"

MEET THE EXPERT

Dr. Tiffany McCormack

American Board of Plastic Surgery

PROCEDURES PERFORMED

Abdominoplasty
Breast Augmentation
Blepharoplasty
Body Contouring
Facelift

ABOUT DR. McCORMACK

WHAT IS YOUR MOST POPULAR PROCEDURE?

My "mommy makeover," which includes combinations of breast surgery, body contouring and abdominoplasty, is very popular.

WHAT SERVICES DOES YOUR MEDI-SPA OFFER?

We provide the full scope of rejuvenation services to help patients maintain a healthy and youthful appearance. Treatment options include facials, lash tinting, chemical peels and Botox®.

MEDICAL DEGREE
University of Arizona,
College of Medicine

LOCATION
Reno, Nevada

CONTACT
775.284.2020

To learn more about the practice visit plasticsurgeryrenoatohoe.com